

Where Are The Jobs In India
Times of India, Date: 19.11.08

Citigroup on Tuesday cut 53,000 more jobs, triggering fears of more layoffs by other companies across industries. TOI, however, has decided to be contrarian. Instead of only writing about pink slips hunted out companies that are actually hiring. Here's the lowdown on

Finance & Consultancy:

- SBI to hire 25,000 new hands, according to bank chairman O P Bhat. The fresh recruitment will be done this fiscal – 20,000 in the clerical cadre and 5,000 supervisory staff.
- Bank of India to hire 10,000 over the next few months. This, on top of over 30,000 fresh recruitments in 2008-09 in the next 2 years, the bank plans to take in 75,000.
- Accenture will hire 10,000 people in India by 2010, says COO Stephen J Rohleder.
- Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, top global mgmt consultants, looking to hire 3,500 in India in 3 yrs.
- Metlife, a new private insurance co., will recruit 30,000 agents and 2,000 managers by March 2009, says CEO Rajesh Relan.

BPO

- Aegis BPO services will add 1,000 people per month this fiscal.

Infotech

- Tata Consultancy Services to hire 30,000-35,000 people this year, says a spokesperson. TCS made 24, 789 technical campus offers for 2009-10, a 13% jump over this year.
- Infosys is sticking to plans of hiring 25,000 people this fiscal, says CEO Kris Gopalakrishnan. Infosys has made around 20,000 offers for next year.
- Satyam plans to hire 8,000 – 10,000 people this fiscal, according to its HR head, S V Krishnan.

Campus Hiring

- IIM Bangalore and IIM Calcutta say all their students have got placements for next year.

Manufacturing

- L&T will hire 10,000 people over the next 3 yrs according to CMD A M Naik.
- Maruti has decided to hire 1,000 fresh hands despite the sluggishness in the auto sector, says a company spokesman.